What's Working for English Learners:
Success Stories from the Field

January 28, 2027 | 8:00 am - 3:30 pm CST

Register via the Seidlitz Education website

Join us for an inspiring and practical conference where educators come together to share what's working for English Learners in today's classrooms and schools.

What's Working highlights real-world success stories from teachers, specialists, and school leaders who are making a difference. From innovative instructional strategies to campus-wide supports and culturally responsive practices, you'll leave with tools and ideas you can put into action right away.

Why Attend?

- Learn proven, classroom-tested strategies for supporting ELs
- Hear directly from educators in the field
- Walk away with new resources, renewed energy, and practical takeaways
